

COMMUNITY NEWS

Local and Fresh Vegetables Lottery

If you are a year-round Sedgwick Community Member, you are invited to submit your information for a chance to win 16 weeks of FRESH, WHOLESOME & LOCALLY GROWN VEGETABLES from King Hill Farm in Penobscot, Maine. There will be ten (10) Sedgwick Families randomly chosen by lottery to participate in this program. All YOU need to do is provide your name, physical address and phone number in the Local & Fresh Vegetable Lottery Box in the school's foyer entrance. The drawing will be held on Thursday, June 10, 2010 and winners will be notified shortly thereafter. Official guidelines will be posted. You may contact Hadley Friedman of Healthy Peninsula at 207-374-3257, ext. 104 for more information. NO PURCHASE NECESSARY.

Learn to Sail Week

Learn to sail this summer! This program is offered from June 21 - 25 at the KSEA Sailing School, at the Kollegewidwok Yacht Club, in Blue Hill. It is open to anyone in the community from students entering the third grade through adults. Register online at www.kollegewidwokyc.org. The cost is $40 for the week and scholarships are available. If you would like further information, please call Prudy Heilner at 374-5485.

Sailing and Rowing Classes at KYC

Classes are offered at the KSEA Sailing School, at the Kollegewidwok Yacht Club in Blue Hill. Session 1: June 28 - July 9, Session 2: July 12 - July 30 and Session 3: August 2 - August 20. Class descriptions and registration are available online at www.kollegewidwokyc.org. Scholarships are available. If you would like further information, please call Prudy Heilner at 374-5485.

Congo Car Wash & Bake Sale

Come help us raise money for Down East Maine Missions at the CONGO CAR WASH-BAKE SALE Saturday, May 22, 9 am-noon; rain date Sunday May 23, 11:30-2:30 pm. Stop by the First Congregational Church of Blue Hill and get your car a spring spruce up. While Sunday School kids are washing your car you can enjoy a drink or tasty snack from our bakery, or buy something to take home for dessert. Proceeds will go to Down East Missions (DEMM). Based in Machias, DEMM works to provide access to food, clothing and basic necessities to the several thousand migrant workers and families harvesting blueberries in Washington County, the poorest county in New England. Monetary donations are used for medicines, tents, tarps, and food, blueberry rakes, and emergency needs for a traveling migrant family. This event is sponsored by the Youth Group and Sunday School of First Congregational Church of Blue Hill. For more information, call Wendy Ritger at 374-2891.

Congo Church Potluck

BELIZE POTLUCK at First Congregational Church, Blue Hill, Saturday, May 15, 5:30 p.m. Come to a potluck supper, enjoy great food and hear a presentation by Ted Hoskins who leads an annual work-mission trip to Monkey River, a small town in Belize, Central America. Just back from Belize, Ted will bring photos, stories and new challenges from his journey. Hear the latest on microfinancing, medical clinics, and the high school scholarship program. Learn about the palapas that Ted and friends built in Monkey River. What is a palapa? Come to the potluck and find out. Bring a dish to share, and if you would like to make Belizian food, recipes and a sign-up sheet are in Jonathan Fisher Hall, the church basement. Donations accepted for Monkey River Scholarships. All are invited, child care provided. Sponsored by the church's Outreach Board. For more information, call Wendy at 374-2891 bhcongo@yahoo.com.